July 2023

Nottingham City Libraries are part of Nottingham City Council, who are the data controllers for the personal data (or personal information) that we process about you. When we process personal information relating to you, we will only do so when it is necessary and where we have a lawful reason to do so. We will use the information provided by you for a number of reasons, depending on the service or reasons for interacting with you. This includes:

- Running the Summer Reading Challenge

When we process your personal information, we will comply with data protection legislation and enable you to exercise your rights contained within the legislation.

What personal information will the Council process?

The information that we collect about you to fulfil the purposes, objectives, or to deliver the services outlined above will relate to your: (this may include all, or some of the following, depending on the service).

- Your Child's name, child's gender, age, school attended, postcode

Lawful basis for processing

The basis under which we use your personal information for these purposes is consent. You can withdraw your consent for us processing your personal data, you can do this by email: enquiryline@nottinghamcity.gov.uk.

However, please be advised that if you withdraw consent for processing your child's name, we won't be able to track their progress through the Challenge.

Will my information be shared with other organisations or used for other purposes?

The Council will only share your personal information with other departments within the Council, and with other organisations when it is necessary to provide the services to you, and when we have a lawful reason to do so. The Council may also share your information when we are obliged to by law.

In relation to this service, the Council does not share your child's personal information. We share fully anonymised and aggregated data regarding children's age ranges and gender as part of the national evaluation report with the Reading Agency (the charitable organisation who run the Summer Reading Challenge.)

The information may also be used for the purpose of any other function carried out by the Council. This may include sharing your information across the Council, or with external organisations. Information about these functions and the legal basis on which information is used for them can be found at <http://www.nottinghamcity.gov.uk/privacy-statement/> The information will only be used for another purpose where it is lawful to do so.

Do I have to provide the information?

You are not obliged by statute or contract to provide the information that is specified here. However, if we were not able to process your child's personal data we would not be able to administer their Reading Challenge experience.

How long will the Council retain the data for?

The information that you have provided will be kept for until end of October 2023.

The Council publish an Information Asset Register (IAR), this will outline the retention periods for the personal data we process. You can find this IAR on our website <https://geoserver.nottinghamcity.gov.uk/information-asset-register/>
