May 2022

The Address Management Team are part of Nottingham City Council, who are the data controllers for the personal data (or personal information) that we process about you. When we process personal information relating to you, we will only do so when it is necessary and where we have a lawful reason to do so.

We will use the information provided by you for a number of reasons, depending on the service or reasons for interacting with you. This includes:

- Delivering the Council's statutory Street Naming and Numbering responsibilities, through appropriate naming of streets, and the naming and numbering of buildings, for the basis of identifying properties and creating unique addresses.

When we process your personal information, we will comply with data protection legislation and enable you to exercise your rights contained within the legislation.

What personal information will the Council process?

The information that we collect about you to fulfil the purposes, objectives, or to deliver the services outlined above may relate to your:

- Name
- Contact Address
- Contact details (email, telephone number)

- Development Address
- Planning application and buildings regulation references, where applicable;
- Whether you are a leaseholder, freeholder or acting on behalf of those individuals

Lawful basis for processing

The basis under which we use your personal information for these purposes is that this is

- necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest by the Council or in the exercise of official authority vested in the Council
- necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the Council is subject

These public tasks and legal obligations are a result of the powers and duties contained in:

- (1) the Public Health Act 1925 (street naming), and
- (2) the Town Improvement Clauses Act 1847 as incorporated into the Public Health Act 1875, jointly known as 'The First Scheme' (street numbering), and as applied by paragraph 23 of Schedule 14 to the Local Government Act 1972.

Will my information be shared with other organisations or used for other purposes?

The Council will only share your personal information with other departments within the Council, and with other organisations when it is necessary to provide the services to you, and when we have a lawful reason to do so. The Council may also share your information when we are obliged to by law.

In relation to this service, the Council will share your personal information with:

- Planning, Building Control, Revenues and Benefits, Licensing, or any other Council departments for the purposes of enforcement and/ or rate collection.

The information provided by you may also be used for the purpose of any other function carried out by the Council. This may include sharing your information across the Council, or with external organisations. Information about these functions and the legal basis on which information is used for them can be found at <http://www.nottinghamcity.gov.uk/privacy-statement/>

The information will only be used for another purpose where it is lawful to do so.

Do I have to provide the information?

You are not obliged by statute or contract to provide some of the information that is specified here. However, if we were unable to process your personal information, we would not be able provide these services.

How long will the Council retain the data for?

The information that you have provided will be kept for 6 years after the last action on the matter.

The Council publish an Information Asset Register (IAR), this will outline the retention periods for the personal data we process. You can find this IAR on our website <https://geoserver.nottinghamcity.gov.uk/information-asset-register/>
