

ABOUT

The Pythian Club was formed in 2014 to run programmes that work towards ending youth violence.

They improve the quality of life for young people by working alongside them to address their social, educational, and health needs.

WHAT THEY ARE DOING

The Pythian Club have work in a range of areas to involve the local community to improve green spaces near them.

They aim to create spaces for all to enjoy to support a happier and healthy world with nature in mind

They have created a Sustainability Youth Action Ambassador Group to ensure young people increase their knowledge of climate issues and have a chance to share their voice.

The Pythian Club are measuring their performance against the United Nation's Sustainable Development Goals.
