

Post Title: Social Worker – Level 2
(Qualified & Registered)

Grade: H

Job Purpose

It is expected that the post holder will have at least two year post qualifying experience. The role is responsible for providing practical and social work support for children, young people and families.

To manage a complex caseload with a high level of autonomy, contributing to statutory decision-making and legal processes, and coordinating effective multi-agency responses to meet identified risk and need.

This will include undertaking assessments, visiting children and their families, carrying out interventions, reviewing the work undertaken, direct work with children, young people and families and any other work identified as necessary. All this must be based on best evidence and good practice, prioritising the best interests of children and young people. The post holder could be expected to offer mentoring and work-shadowing/work experience opportunities.

This role is designed for use across a range of Children's Services teams ensuring consistent professional standards and flexibility in meeting the diverse needs of children, young people, and families.

Individual Leadership Expectations

As an Officer of the Council, you will be expected to demonstrate our core behaviours, linked to the following four themes:

- Individual Leadership: by putting our citizens and customers first, delivering against your objectives, helping to set direction, and putting forward ideas for improvements.
- Equality Diversity & Inclusion: by ensuring we consider the needs of all NCC citizens in our work, show respect for others, upholding and adhering to the Council's Code of Conduct.
- Change & Innovation: by being creative, delivering change when needed, sharing problems, and helping to bring forward suggestions for improvements.
- Collaboration: by working well with others, identifying the needs of colleagues and others to deliver great services and by being a good communicator who works well with a range of audiences.

Specific Duties

1. Actively promote and embed Equality, Diversity, and Inclusion through all actions and in accordance with the organisation's EDI strategy and objectives.

2. Contribute to our corporate responsibility in relation to climate change by taking action and limiting the carbon impact of activities within your role and championing this work.
3. Work independently to hold and effectively manage a caseload, acknowledging and ensuring appropriate levels of responsibility commensurate with the individual's knowledge and skills.
4. Work directly with children, young people and families, the policies, procedures of Children's Services and regulatory standards. Leading Family Network Meetings. Involving all key family members and prioritising children and young people's safety. Work using Signs of Safety methodology, which works collaboratively with families to empower them to find solutions whilst ensuring working within
5. Carry out in depth and ongoing family assessment of social need and risk to children, with particular focus on parental capacity and capacity to change. Recognise the signs, harm, and risk indicators associated with all forms of abuse, including sexual, physical and emotional abuse, as well as neglect. This includes considering the potential for child sexual exploitation, grooming (both online and offline), female genital mutilation, forced marriage, and other adult behaviours that may pose a risk to children. It is also important to acknowledge that children themselves may at times be perpetrators of abuse
6. Use reflective supervision, research and other guidance to recognising one's own professional limitations and how and when to seek advice from a range of sources, including, Team Managers, senior practice leaders and other clinical practitioners from a range of disciplines. The post holder will work in conjunction with senior staff and managers through available support systems (supervision, appraisal, mentoring, co working and work shadowing).
7. Navigate the family and youth justice systems in England using legal powers and duties to support families, to protect children and to look after children in the public care system, including the regulated frameworks that support the full range of permanence options. Participate in decisions about whether to make an application to the family court, the order to be applied for and the preparation and presentation of evidence.
8. Seek advice and professional second opinion as required in relation to the legal issues, interventions and plans which frequently impact children, young people and families involved with statutory services.
9. Use the law and regulatory and statutory guidance to inform practice decisions. Take into account the complex relationship between professional ethnics, the application of the law and the impact of social policy on both.
10. Make realistic child centred plans within a review timeline which will manage and reduce identified risks and meets the needs of the child. Any plans devised for the child need to be evidence informed, demonstrate clear analysis and professional judgement and evaluative decision-making skills. This also includes working with multi-agency partners.

11. Continuously develop knowledge of child development and how these impacts on all aspects of a child's life. This includes physical, cognitive, social, emotional and behavioural development and the impact of different parenting styles. Have a good and continually developing understanding of adult behaviours; for example, adult mental health, domestic abuse, mental health, physical health, disability and substance misuse and the impact on, and inter-relationship between, parenting and child development.
12. Arrange or provide transport/escort for Service Users e.g. to health appointments, education; provide practical support including access to living aids, to families and to young people, including those formally looked after by the Authority seeking to live independently in the community.
13. Maintain and update case notes and other records pertaining to the child/children you have responsibility for. Write reports as required and if needed give evidence in court on factual matters.
14. Contribute to planning/reviewing the cases of children in care; supervise fostering/adoption arrangements.
15. The post holder could be expected to offer mentoring, work-shadowing/work experience opportunities and be a workbased supervisor for Social Work students. The post holder could be expected to take on Team Champion roles; for example, Signs of Safety Champion etc.
