WHAT THEY ARE DOING

Murphy & Son have appointed a full-time Sustainability Coordinator who is responsible for compiling an annual sustainability report to update on carbon emissions. They are also embedding sustainability into the business with education for employees, as well as promoting best practice, and working with the industry to achieve wider change.

Murphy & Son have undertaken a number of initiatives including a container return scheme to reduce waste sent to landfill, installing solar panels for renewable energy, and installing 2 electric vehicle charging points on site.
